

Nomination of shares on Death

Nomination of shares in the event of your death

You can nominate a person aged 16 or over, to whom you wish your shares to be transferred in the event of your death.

Trustees will need to be appointed for a nominee under 16 years old.

Sunart Community Renewables will respect your wish in so far as the law and our Rules permit.

If you are a joint shareholder, your shareholding will pass to the other joint shareholder(s) on your death, unless you complete the form below.
